

Corinth Presbyterian Church in Parker, Texas

Corinth Presbyterian Church in Parker, Texas offers an ideal setting for your perfect vintage wedding. Take a step back in time, as you pronounce your marriage vows in a unique setting with some very inspiring stained glass windows.

Whether you are planning a wedding or your marriage vow renewal, you will find Corinth a most fitting venue.

The church remains one of the most well-recognized buildings in Parker and has been the location of dozens of weddings over the past 8 decades. This is truly a historical setting for your wedding of a lifetime.

The neutral color scheme goes well with any color selection of gowns and flowers. The church seats 150-200 comfortably.

Small Reception Area

In the tradition of our heritage, a side reception area can be used for small groups where cake and punch can be served. A number of long tables and folding chairs can be reserved for this type of reception at no additional charge.

Large Reception Area

The church property affords large side grounds which will accommodate one or more tents for a larger reception on site, if the couple so desires.

Fee Structure

Basic fees:

ITEM:	MEMBER	NON-MEMBER
Use of sanctuary	$0	$350
Cleaning fee and Security Deposit	$250	$250

Corinth
Presbyterian Church
Sharing the joy since 1846

5609 East Parker Road
Parker, Texas 75002

Phone: 972-372-4765

Web site:

www.corinthpresbyterian.org

A brief History of Corinth
Presbyterian Church in Parker,
Texas

We are the oldest continuing congregation of any denomination in Collin County, founded in 1846. The current building was constructed in 1923 on land owned by the family of current church members.

Corinth Presbyterian Church
5609 East Parker Road
Parker, Texas

Phone: 972-372-4765

Web site:

www.corinthpresbyterian.org

Corinth
Presbyterian Church in Parker, Texas

‘Wedding Basics’

Corinth Presbyterian Church
5609 East Parker Road
Parker, Texas 75002
Phone: 972-372-4765

